Christmas PUDDING MADEIRA

In March 2006 Fortnum's wine buyer travelled to Madeira to find the perfect partner for our definitive Christmas pudding. He enlisted Senhor Ricardo de Freitas of the Barbeito Madeira family and set to work.

Blending a long forgotten barrel found in a disused barn with fresher, younger wines created an exciting sort of alchemy, the perfect union of opulent age and youthful freshness. This exemplary alliance of innocence and experience is exactly what's required to deal with the challenge posed by a really swaggering mouthful - a magnificent creation that stands up to the powerful, rich fruit in a way that most sweet wines just can't manage.
